

Criteria	Work Visa (S19)	Intra-Company Transfer Work Permit (S19(5))	Critical Skills Work Visa (S19(4))	General Work Visa (S19(2))	Relatives Visa (S18)
Purpose	Employment in South Africa	Temporary transfer of employees within the same company	Attract individuals with critical skills for the economy	Employment for individuals with a job offer	To join family members residing in South Africa
Eligibility	Foreign nationals with job offers	Employees of multinational companies	Individuals with skills on the critical skills list	Foreign nationals with confirmed employment	Spouses, children, parents, siblings
Requirements	Job offer, proof of qualifications, employer support	Employment contract, letter from employer	Proof of qualifications, registration with professional body	Job offer, proof of qualifications, labour market testing	Proof of relationship, financial support
Validity	Up to 5 years, depending on the contract	Up to 4 years	Up to 5 years, renewable	Up to 5 years, based on employment contract	Up to 2 years, renewable
Conditions	Restricted to specific job and employer	Must return to home country after transfer period	Must remain in occupation related to critical skills	Restricted to specific job and employer	Must remain dependent on South African relative
Application Process	Application through employer support	Application through employer support	Application with proof of critical skills	Application through employer	Application with proof of relationship
Extensions	Renewable based on employment continuation	Non-renewable	Renewable if critical skills remain relevant	Renewable if employment continues	Renewable if relationship continues
Permitted Activities	Employment in specified job	Temporary work assignment	Employment in occupation related to critical skills	Employment in specified job	Reside with family member
Examples of Beneficiaries	Professionals with job offers	Employees of global companies	Engineers, IT specialists, healthcare professionals	Various professionals	Family members of residents
Criteria	Temporary Visa (S11)	Visitors Visa (S11)	Asylum Seeker Visa (S22)	Treaty Visa (S14)	Study Visa (S13)
Purpose	Various short-term visits	Tourism, business, short-term stays	Protection from persecution in home country	Activities in accordance with an international treaty	Study at educational institutions

Eligibility	Varies based on purpose	Tourists, business travellers	Individuals facing persecution	Participants in a treaty	Foreign students enrolled in recognized institutions
Requirements	Purpose of visit, financial means	Proof of financial means, return ticket	Evidence of persecution	Evidence of participation in a treaty	Proof of enrolment, financial means
Validity	Up to 3 months	Up to 90 days	Temporary while claim is assessed	Depends on treaty terms	Duration of study program
Conditions	Must not engage in work	Must not engage in work	Must comply with conditions of stay	Must comply with treaty conditions	Must remain enrolled in the institution
Application Process	Application with relevant documentation	Application with proof of travel intentions	Application with refugee reception office	Application with proof of treaty participation	Application through educational institution
Extensions	Generally non-renewable	Generally non-renewable	Status reviewed periodically	Depends on treaty terms	Renewable based on continued enrolment
Permitted Activities	Short-term activities	Tourism, business meetings	Residence while asylum application is processed	Treaty-related activities	Full-time study
Examples of Beneficiaries	Tourists, short-term business visitors	Tourists, conference attendees	Refugees, asylum seekers	Treaty participants	University students

Criteria	Medical Treatment Visa (S17)	Crew Visa (S16)	Retired Person Visa (S20)	Exchange Visa (S22)
Purpose	Receive medical treatment in South Africa	Crew members of ships or aircraft	Retirees wishing to live in South Africa	Participate in cultural, economic, or social exchange
Eligibility	Patients requiring medical care	Crew members of international transport	Retired individuals with sufficient funds	Participants in exchange programs
Requirements	Proof of appointment with medical facility	Letter from employer, proof of crew status	Proof of retirement funds, income	Proof of enrolment in exchange program

Validity	Duration of treatment	Duration of stay in South Africa	Up to 4 years, renewable	Up to 12 months
Conditions	Must comply with treatment plan	Must comply with crew duties	Must not engage in work	Must comply with program conditions
Application Process	Application with medical documentation	Application through employer	Application with proof of financial means	Application with proof of exchange program
Extensions	Renewable if treatment continues	Renewable with proof of continued duties	Renewable if financial conditions are met	Generally non-renewable
Permitted Activities	Medical treatment	Crew duties	Retirement activities, leisure	Program-related activities
Examples of Beneficiaries	Patients from abroad	Airline, shipping crew members	Retirees from foreign countries	Exchange students, cultural program participants